Members of the Florida House Excused from Florida House Organization Session

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (November 17, 2020) — The following statement was released regarding House Members who were excused from the 2020 Organization Session of the Florida Legislature.

All but four House members at organization session today tested. All who tested and were present in the chamber were negative for COVID. All 78 House Republicans were tested.

The following members were excused from Organization Session because they were positive for COVID, or they were in close contact with someone who recently tested positive for COVID:

- Representative David Borrero
- Representative Adam Botana
- Representative Demi Busatta Cabrera
- Representative Mike Giallombardo
- Representative Michelle Salzman
- Representative Geraldine Thompson
- Representative Jackie Toledo
